Residence Welcome Letter

A Letter From Your Residence Manager

Welcome Home to Essex Hall!

My name is Jan and I will be your Residence Manager for the 2017-2018 academic year. I'm so excited to welcome you to your new home at Western University!

My role as a Residence Manager is to support student life within the building. This includes wellness concerns, community issues, behavior management, social engagement, academic success, and leadership opportunities. None of this would be possible without the help of the dedicated student leaders living within Essex Hall: the Residence Staff, Residents' Council, and the Soph Team, all are highly motivated individuals that work to ensure that you have the best first year experience in residence.

I look forward to meeting you all in September and encourage you to stop by my office to say hello. Throughout the year you will see me attending building programs, eating in the dining hall, and during my office hours, feel free to say hello, introduce yourself, and tell me how your year is going!

Can't wait till move-in day!

All the best

ESSEX HALL

Residence Welcome Letter

A Letter From Your Head Soph

Hey guys ! Your building Head Soph Snorlax here. Can't believe we'll finally be seeing you guys in September. Words can not describe how excited I am looking forward to the day y'all move in. University is a brand new experience for a lot of y'all, and you are all about to embark on this wonderful journey and on behalf of the building leadership team, I just want to extend a warm welcome for everyone ! There's probably so much pent-up emotions you have leading up to the day, but whether you're nervous, excited, or even a little scared like I was, you'll be able to call Essex your new home. The Essex community has helped me made so many of my favorite Western memories, and I know she'll do the same for you. So explore, put yourself out there, step out of your comfort zone to try new things, and lastly, be involved with us and your community, you only get this first year

Rez experience once, so make the most of it while you can. Until then, new class of Essex Eagles, have a great summer and look forward to a "suite" year.
